FOR THE SMALL but hardworking La Reata staff the past year has meant the hurry to meet deadlines, the work to sell pledge cards, and the pride to see their united efforts materialize into the 1951 La Reata. In addition to their work expended to put the book out, the staff sponsored a Camera Day to secure pictures for the yearbook. All the work is forgotten, however, when this edition of La Reata came off the presses ready for distribution.

FILLED WITH A CONCISE and clear picture of student activities and events, Panther Sentinel was published weekly to help keep students informed on happenings about the college. In addition to helping promote student body and club activities, the Panther Sentinel sponsored a drive for blood at Hartnell early in March. Working with the American Red Cross, the paper secured donors for the drive. Even though manned by a small staff during the year, the newspaper did a complete and thorough job of covering the college and campus.

Happy times during "The Happiest Years"

Drama

A very successful season was enjoyed by the Hartnell drama department. Under the direction of Mr. Harold Ulrici, the drama students staged five productions. "The Heiress" opened the year, and "The Redemption Play" was the Christmas presentation. A comedy, "The Happiest Years" was very well received as the third production, the very dramatic "Medea" followed, and "Alice-Sit-by-the-Fire" concluded the season.

Football

The 1950 edition of Hartnell College Panthers won four games and lost four games during the season. In opening with a devastating 33-13 win over the Taft Cougars, the Panthers played their best ball of the season. Fresno then eked out a one-point win, 13-12, in a Shrine-sponsored contest at Fresno. Back home again the Maroon and Gold was trounced by the classy Stockton College outfit, and things were looking bad for the team. Coach Elliott Wilson snapped the squad out of the doldrums, and they fought to a 19-13 win over San Mateo. "Ye Olde Gaboon" came back to Hartnell after a 27-7 Homecoming Day win over Menlo, and the Panthers made it three in a row by defeating Modesto, 13-12. On Armistice Day, City College of San Francisco hosted the locals and took a 20-0 victory. Climax of the season came when Hartnell played a beautiful defensive game, holding the league champions, Monterey Peninsula College, to 12 points, but were unable to counter and dropped the tilt, 12-0.

Acknowledgments

No annual such as La Reata can be published without the co-operation of many individuals who have aided the staff. For instance, without the assistance of President John B. Lemos, the faculty, and office staff, few of the group pictures which necessitated students leaving classwork could have been taken.

Two photographers, Hurl Swartz and Bob Crabbe, were likewise very cooperative. Mr. Swartz took the sophomore pictures while Mr. Crabbe and the Salinas Californian generously contributed many football pictures. All other pictures are by the student staff photographers.

El Camino Press, printers and lithographers in Salinas, were helpful with many suggestions. Covers are by the S. K. Smith Company of Los Angeles and the binding is the work of Bookbinders Company, Los Angeles.

To these and many others who have helped the staff, thank you.
